

Lessons Learned from Grandfather... An Evening with Arun Gandhi

Sponsorship Information

New Vision Spiritual Growth Center proudly presents Arun Gandhi as he continues the legacy of his grandfather, Mahatma Gandhi, in promoting peace and non-violence around the world. Gandhi will share his inspiring Lessons I Learned From My Grandfather, a talk that will stimulate, uplift and awaken attendees to realize the importance of their life and how each can truly make a difference in the world. The lessons Gandhi learned from growing up with his grandfather left an indelible mark on his heart ... and he will leave an indelible mark on our hearts as well.

Be a part of this exciting event and celebrate World Peace Day by promoting peace, non-violence and unity for people of all cultures, ethnicities and religions.

Born in 1934 in South Africa, Arun Manilal Gandhi's early years were shaped by his learnings at his grandfather's side as a teen. He spent his adult life in India serving the poor and rescuing children from the streets. In 1987 he and his wife Sunanda moved to the United States, starting the M.K. Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence. His current mission is building schools in poverty villages in India and sharing his message of peace and non-violence with Gandhi's Worldwide Education Institute. Author, speaker, educator, and world humanitarian, Gandhi is recognized as an ambassador of world peace.
